

LIFE AFTER HIGH SCHOOL...(Part One)

What do you want to with your life? In order to make good choices for yourself while in high school, you need to consider your desires for your future. This assignment is designed to help you consider your specific personality traits, discover careers that match your interests / personality traits, and research the specific jobs and post-secondary programs that interest you.

The assignment is broken down into simple steps below. It is worth 50 points (as designated at each step) and is due on _____.

Complete the Career Clusters Interest Survey (10 pts.)

<http://www.careertech.org/sites/default/files/StudentInterestSurvey-English.pdf>

Circle the items in each box that best describe you - you can circle as many or as few as apply. Be honest and true to yourself to get the best results! Add up the number of circles in each box, then find the three clusters that best suit you . . .you can retrieve a printed copy of this survey by asking Ms. Bard, but you can also access it at the link above, and make it a writable pdf.

Take the famous Jung Typology Test (5 pts.)

<http://www.humanmetrics.com/cgi-win/JTypes1.htm>

You are to choose the answers you agree with most for each question. If you are not sure how to answer then the decision should be based on your most typical reaction or feeling in the given situation. Respond to all questions to get a reliable result.

You will get a four letter personality type that you need for the next step. Screen shot / print this!

Print the Common Careers for your personality type (5 pts.)

<https://www.personalitypage.com/html/careers.html>

Click on the link that corresponds to the personality type you belong to according to the Jung Typology Test and print that page.

Find your perfect profession(s)! (5 pts.)

Visit the Bureau of Labor Statistics K-12 Career Exploration Page

<http://www.bls.gov/k12/content/students/careers/career-exploration.htm>

Click on your favorite or most successful school subject / hobby to find jobs that apply to that discipline. Click on, and print out, the page listing jobs that match that subject area that most appeals to you.

Consult the Occupational Handbook (15 pts.)

<http://www.bls.gov/ooh/>

Choose three careers / jobs from your personality test results, BLS website, or personal goals/passions to research on one of the sites above. For each carer, print the page from the handbook, or you can write down the information: for each of the three professions you must report job description, training required, salary information, job outlook, and similar occupations.

Research Post-Secondary Possibilities (10 pts.)

Use the site(s) below to find FOUR schools that offer programs of study related to the professions you've researched in the Occupational Handbook. Report (print and highlight, or write down) the admission requirements (test scores, GPA, prerequisites, application deadlines) and major offered that interests you) for each institution.
